Now that I am in Memphis – How do I get to the Sheraton?

Welcome to Memphis! Memphis is known for Elvis, Blues music, the civil rights movement, and of course the global home to our hosts Federal Express.

A beautiful city situated on the Mississippi River, Memphis was a trade port for cotton and other agricultural goods. These days, Memphis is a thriving hub for logistics and health care industry products.

So, enjoy the AMC-AEEC and try to stay an extra day to see the colorful sights around town. Now let's get you out of the airport.

First things first:

- You are going to the Sheraton Memphis Downtown
 - 250 North Main Street, Memphis, TN
- Check in time is 1600. You can call to possibly arrange an earlier time if needed.
- The cost of onsite parking is $29 plus tax USD per day with in-out privilege.
 - There is off-site parking for as low as $10 per day
 - Downtown Memphis is convenient for shopping and great food within easy walking distance – so you may not need a rental car during the Conference – if you plan to travel after the Conference we recommend picking up your car at that time.
- The hotel is very modern with a fitness center, laundry services, business clerical services, etc.
- Wireless is available for free in most common areas, and complimentary in the sleeping rooms.
